

Fresh eyes across the board

CAMERON ENGLAND

EXPERTISE: Advisory board members Jamie McKeough, Anthony Kittel, Michele Kittel and Paul Crawford.

EVEN though he's managing director and co-owner of Redarc, Anthony Kittel sought the imprimatur of a key outside influence when deciding on a recent interstate investment – his advisory board.

Mr Kittel is among an increasing number of SA business leaders looking to outside expertise for insight and assistance, the AICD said.

"Our advisory board has a critical role in setting the future direction of Redarc," Mr Kittel said. "Our NSW office was a significant investment so I presented a paper to the board outlining the financial and business implications. It was an opportunity to gain sound objective advice and, based on that, we signed the lease and haven't looked back."

Mr Kittel is currently appointing a new board member to replace outgoing chairman Tom Phillips.
