

The Prime Minister visits Wirra Wirra

The Prime Minister Malcolm Turnbull chose McLaren Vale winery Wirra Wirra, to make an announcement regarding FTAs and Export. Given it was pre-election week in SA, he was accompanied by then Leader of the Opposition Stephen Marshall, Senator Anne Ruston and local member-elect for Mawson, Andy Gilfillan. Unfortunately Managing Director and CEO Andrew Kay (2014) was enroute to China at the time – to do all the things the Prime Minister was talking up while at the winery! Andrew used the images of the PM at Wirra Wirra during his time in China to good effect. The honour of such a visit in the eyes of the Chinese reaffirmed Wirra Wirra's status as a significant Australian wine producer.

necessity” to South Australia.

South Australian Liberal leader Steven Marshall looks on as Prime Minister Malcolm Turnbull plunges a vat of grapes during a visit to Wirra Wirra Vineyards in McLaren Vale, Saturday, March 10, 2018. AAP Image/Tracey Nearmy.