

Personal Development Grants

The Industry Leaders Fund (ILF) has awarded grants worth totalling $199,000 to 20 South Australians. Four of these grants will provide education and research opportunities to scientists and engineers in the South Australian electronics and defence sectors:

- Stephen Faulkner CEO, PMB Defence
- Dr David Haley co-founder and CIO of Myriota
- Bradley Spencer, Capability Development Lead, Nova Systems
- Seth Thuraisingham, CEO, Consilium Technology

The ILF, a non-government, private-sector funded organisation. It is now recognised as the state's leading education grants provider.

Grant recipients will attend courses including at Stanford University, Palo Alto, California.
