

Shahin's up and running with $40m investment

VALERINA CHANGARATHIL

THE Shahin family will further expand their fuel empire in Victoria with three new On The Run stores as part of a $40 million-plus investment that will also create 400 new jobs in SA.

The major spend is for the construction of new stores and rebuilding 11 others.

Currently, OTR operates 146 petrol and convenience stores across SA and one in Victoria, which opened in 2015.

The new Victorian regional OTRs will be in Mildura, Horsham and Portland.

Parent company Peregrine Corporation is among the state's largest private employers with more than 4000 staff, including 3200 at OTR.

OTR chief executive Warren Wilmot said positions were available across its stores as well as in the corporate office.

"This year, we will hire people in our metropolitan and regional OTR sites, across our convenience OTR stores and food brands including Guzman Y Gomez, Subway and Oporto," he said.

"Due to continuous growth, our corporate office is (also) seeking talent for newly created roles."

"We genuinely believe in creating job and training opportunities for thousands of Australians and are proud of the careers we have helped shape across the last 30 years," Mr Wilmot said.

OTR last year invested $45 million in constructing and rebuilding 10 stores.

The Shahins featured in The List – Australia's Richest 250, published in the Weekend Australian.

Brothers Khalil, Samer and Yasser Shahin have a combined family fortune estimated at $1.84 billion.