

Emilio De Stefano

De Stefano & Co / Director & Principal

Experienced business executive and chartered professional engineer Emilio De Stefano has worked for multinational companies, run a multi-million-dollar engineering firm and started two of his own rapidly growing businesses in very different industries.

He is currently De Stefano & Co's Director and Principal, as well as an Adelaide Gardening Group Co-founder.

De Stefano & Co was established in 2015 to assist businesses navigate the defence industry and grow their defence sector revenue.

Emilio says the company has not only achieved more than 50 per cent year-on-year growth, it has also opened a new office in Mile End and brought on its first interstate and international customers.
