

InDaily

Briefcase: Business Snippets from around South Australia

3/4/23

By Wong Tsz Yung

New HQ for Nova Systems

Engineering services and technology solutions company, Nova Systems has moved its headquarters from Mile End to a new office located at 169 Pirie Street.

The Pirie Street building is home to Nine Network Australia, health industry IT provider HAMBS, HomeStart Finance, Laser Vision SA and the National Heavy Vehicle Regulator (NHVR).

Nova Systems Chief Executive Officer, Jim McDowell said the company's new headquarters were a significant move for the business.

“Nova Systems is continuously recruiting and looking for the best and brightest minds to support our mission to ensure Australia remains safe and secure and we hope our new office space in the heart of the city is another reason to entice people to work with us.”