New managing director takes the keys

Adelaide-based manufacturing company Key Tubing & Electrical (KTE) has announced Henri Hugo as its new Managing Director.

Prior to joining the family business, Hugo worked in London as Industrial Designer for brand implementation company Harkess-Ord.

He joined KTE in 2012 as Product Manager before taking on the role of Sales and Marketing Manager in 2014 and being appointed Commercial Director in 2017.

Hugo takes the position from his father Gary Hugo who will remain with the company as Finance Director.
